

Reds Troubled By Emotionalism

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) The Reds have troubles too. This sometimes gets lost sight of in this country's concern about the Russians and their tricks. One of their troubles is emotionalism.

An example of it is in informed reports from Moscow that Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev wants to revive the Comintern form which he and his friends killed last April. It was a Red information bureau created to spread world communism.

The emotionalism can work, and to some extent has worked, for the benefit of the West. But it is the most dangerous, because it is the most unpredictable element in Stalin could be predicted pretty well, but his precise moves but his general strategy. He was a Bolshevik but he was basically conservative; he wanted to expand but cautiously.

He tried to blockade Berlin in 1948-49 to see how much he could get away with in the West. It did not cost him anything. Defeated there by this country's airlift, he tried his luck in the East by letting the Korean War start.

There is no reason to believe he would not have started a general war—but only if he felt sure of winning. And one thing he always did—with two exceptions—was to exact rigid discipline from Communist parties everywhere.

But because of these exceptions—Yugoslavia and Red China—he has been able to keep his parties in line.

left his political heirs with a tangled legacy. With the defiance by Yugoslavians, Tito in 1948 and the emergence of the Chinese Reds as masters of the China mainland in 1949 Stalin lost his absolute control of world communism.

China was too big for Russia to hope to dominate it as it dominated the small satellites. The Chinese Reds now play along with Russia. They need Russian economic and military help. There's no evidence Russia runs them.

But it was with Tito—in letting him live after he broke with Moscow—that Stalin may have made his biggest mistake. By the time of Stalin's death the survival of Tito and the growth of the Red China had filled other Communist parties, particularly in the satellites, with some ideas of their own.

It was last year that Khrushchev and his friends sought to make the best of a bad situation in the Communist world by denouncing Stalin and telling Communists elsewhere they could assert some independence.

What was emotional about this was the way it was done. There had been no real preparation for it. Khrushchev practically blurted out the shift in tactics at the party Congress in Moscow last year.

It took Communists everywhere by surprise. It caused factional splits in Red parties outside Russia and, with the loosening of the controls, led to bloody revolts in Hungary and the less bloody attempt by the Poles to get more independence.

What happened this week in the satellites was almost unbelievable, and certainly would have been unnecessary, in Stalin's days. This was the visit of Chou En-lai, the Red Chinese premier to Poland to persuade the Poles to stick with Moscow.

Hungary, Poland, the disputes and dismay of Communist parties outside the Iron Curtain were all gains for the West.

Khrushchev's party Congress opens again next month. He and his colleagues will have to make some explanations for their disasters of 1956 and, no doubt, will have to lay down a new line to recoup their losses.

The emotionalism of Khrushchev and his friends is not pretty to think about if Russia suffers new reverses which make them think they have to try something drastic to survive.

judges, who now receive $7,200. The measure also would provide expense money for chancellors and circuit judges ranging from $1,000 to $3,000.

The state constitution sets out the salaries for justices and circuit and chancery judges, but an amendment adopted at the November general election gives the legislative authority to set such salaries as it sees fit.

A bill by Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs would authorize a county judge each to select one jury commissioner, instead of the present system whereby the circuit judge selects all three commissioners. Jury commissioners select grand and petit jury panels.

"In effect, a circuit judge has the authority to select the entire panel under the present system," Hurst said.

Petit juries deliberate on criminal and civil lawsuits and grand juries have broad investigative powers and the authority to issue indictments.

The only sign of disagreement yesterday in the Senate came when the upper body started to consider the appointment of Harry Parkin to the Highway Commission and the reappointment of Harvey Combs as insurance commissioner.

The senators confirmed the appointments in a 20-minute executive session after waiving a rule which requires the Senate to wait 48 hours after receiving an appointment before acting on it. The motion to suspend the rules was made by Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock. Some seven or eight "noes" were heard on the voice vote.

Parkin, operator of a Little Rock printing firm, is the second appointment made by Gov. Orval Faubus to the 5-man commission. He succeeds Miss Willie Lawson, also of Little Rock.

The Senate joined the House in approving a resolution accepting an invitation to the legislators to visit Jonesboro next Wednesday. The invitation was extended by the Jonesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce and Arkansas State College.

Arkadelphia, Arkansas, once was named Barkley Hill.

asset in fishing, especially if you are the fish."

In the 1920's famous people like Bobby Jones, Babe Ruth, Bernard Baruch and the Duke of Windsor wore caps.

But from a peak of 55 million caps in 1927 production fell to 27 million in 1937, and these were mostly work or sport caps.

Why the slump? The Cap and Cloth Hat Institute says the gangster films in the 1930's murdered their business.

"Every time Jimmy Cagney threw a pie in Mac's face, he was wearing a cap," said Eugene Saunders, president of the institute. "Every crook, hoodlum, thug or murderer left a cap at the scene of the crime."

"In 1932 alone, 234 cap-wearing movie criminals were either killed or jailed. The producers should have been executed."

The cap manufacturers, riding a new boom, are proud that caps now adorn the heads of people like President Eisenhower, baseball star Ted Williams, actor Rex Harrison and author Ernest Hemingway.

This time the cap makers have declared an open war against movie or TV producers who "identify gangsters by having them wear a cap." Tophats, fedoras, derbies or football helmets—all okay. But caps—no!

"It's them or us," said Saunders.

While we're on the subject of headgear, we might as well cap it with what's new in men's hats. It seems there's been a revolution. A survey by the John B. Stetson Co., came up with these discoveries:

A man's wife has less to say—well, less influence anyway—about her husband's choice of a hat than any other items in his wardrobe.

The old social distinctions in the wearing of certain hat styles has died out.

The banker no longer wears a stiff bowler.

Newspapermen no longer affect flamboyant hats but—bless you, Mr. Stetson!—dress more like doctors. So do actors. Doctors themselves, on the other hand, are getting more informal in their hat tastes.

Businessmen are dressing also as elegantly as bankers used to. Ball players still look like ball players, even though some have eight-hat wardrobes ranging from jaunty Tyrolean numbers to smart evening hats.

Few detectives wear derbies any more. The young FBI agent leans toward a popular narrow brim hat and can easily be mistaken for a carefree collegian.

Lawyers buy conservative hats but give them long and hard wear.

Advertising men? There'll always be an ad man, but you can't pick him out by his hat. The best bet is that it will look like the one worn by his biggest client.

The only other conclusion reached was that a hat in Philadelphia will sit straighter on the head than a hat in Dallas. A hat that stands sideways or slopes back on the head is no longer a tipoff of its owner's occupation.

It merely indicates, he's from the wide open spaces—and particularly if he lifts it when a lady passes.

Within the city limits of Eureka Springs there are 42 springs.

Ninety percent of Bermuda's food supply is imported. Most of the British colony's cultivated land—about 700 acres—is used for Easter lilies and bananas. Bermuda began its blink in Bermuda in 1846, is one of the few such beads in the world made entirely of cast iron.

Whistle Bait with a Wondrous Gait

(Just try today's Instant Dynaflo!)

NO MATTER what make of car you're "going with" right now—here's one that will spark a new love light in your eyes.

This Buick's a fresh new beauty in looks, in lines, in sweeping contours. And a beauty in other ways as well.

Even for a Buick, this one's a joy and a treasure in the road-wise way it handles. In the way it levels with you on the turns. In the way it holds up its head whenever you give it the brakes.

But your longest whistle of sheer delight comes when you head this honey out of town and put it through its paces on the expressways and byways.

That's when you discover the exhilaration of power-pitch performance. When you fully appreciate the immediate response of the latest, greatest version of Variable Pitch Dynaflo—Instant Dynaflo.

Yet this performance is more than a matter of transmission advances.

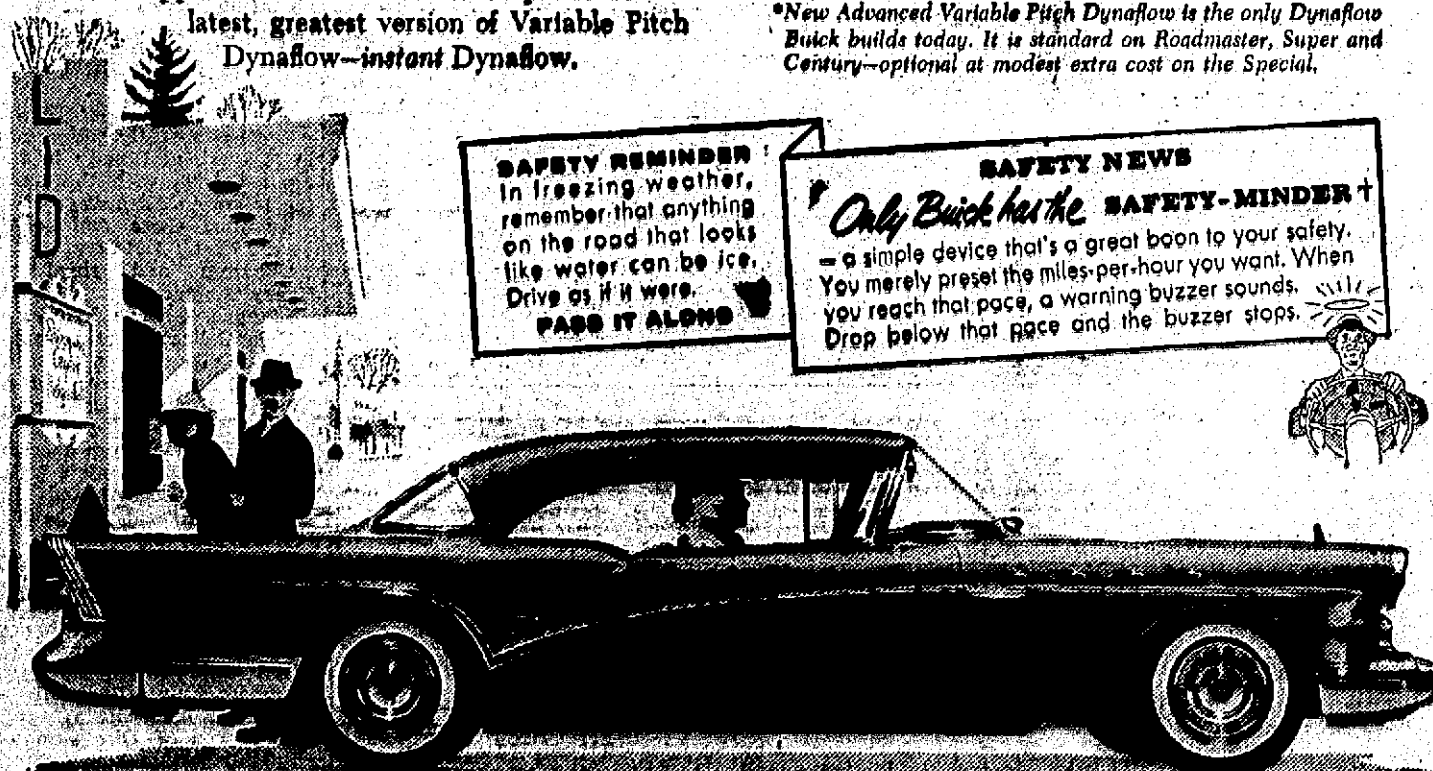

There's a whopping new 364-cubic-inch V8 engine to give it life. An engine completely brand new, all new. With 300 horsepower, 400 foot-pounds of torque, and a mileage-stretching 10 to 1 compression.

There's even more to keep you smiling—150 other brand-new features.

Including fresh decorative touches, new colors and interior trim combinations—and, of course, the extra safety and security of Buick's ruggedness and solidity of construction.

So come in and go stepping with a new 1957 Buick. Today.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

SAFETY REMINDER
In freezing weather, remember that anything on the road that looks like water can be ice. Drive as if it were. PASS IT ALONG.

SAFETY NEWS
Only Buick has the SAFETY-MINDER—a simple device that's a great boon to your safety. When you merely preset the miles-per-hour you want. When you reach that pace, a warning buzzer sounds. Drop below that pace and the buzzer stops.

Big Thrills Buick

Coffee Honoring Miss Nancy Hays

Among the pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Nancy Hays, who became the bride of Bruce Cobb Gottwald on December 22, was an informal coffee given by Miss Roberta Howard, at her home on South Elm Street on Friday afternoon, December 14.

Guests were greeted by Miss Howard, Miss Hays, her mother, Mrs. Thomas Hays and her aunt, Mrs. Lloyd Spencer, in the living room which featured a mantel arrangement of gold, pink and silver grapes centered by an exquisite Dresden Madonna and backed by cathedral candles touched with gold. Rose azaleas, roses and carnations accented by tiny Christmas balls in satin glass epergnes adorned tables in this room where the piano emphasized the Christmas theme with its colorful grouping of a Santa Claus doll dressed in crimson satin, sequined ballet slippers and a pile of gaily-wrapped packages from which the hostess presented her gift to the bride, a luncheon set of imported linen.

In the dining room a glittered Christmas tree bearing tiny gold and silver balls tied with red satin ribbons made an effective background for Mrs. Brooks Shultz, wearing a stunning sheath of dull green wool, who presided at the coffee service. The table appointments were in white, gold, and silver; and graceful arrangements of red carnations with silver ornaments in cut glass and silver vases completed the Christmasy setting in the soft light of crimson tapers in silver candelabra.

For this occasion Miss Hays wore a tulle gown of white blossoms accented by tiny Christmas balls. Mrs. Thomas Hays wore a dress of red and white with red carnations with silver ornaments. Others assisting the hostess were Mrs. Comer Boyett, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. E. S. Richards and Mrs. Richards Howard.

Tonnemaker-Johnson Marriage Vows Pledged
Sunday, January 13 in Garrett Memorial Baptist Church of Hope Miss Vera Tonnemaker became the bride of Wayne Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Johnson.

Elder Elbert O'Steen performed the double ring ceremony. Floor baskets of white gladiolus and jade foliage were placed at each side of the Church altar.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over white net and tulle. The "basque" bodice was fashioned of lace over net and tulle, and came to a point in front with sabrina hand clipped neckline and short sleeves. The full flowing ballerina skirt was topped with a four point hand clipped Chantilly lace lunie. The short veil of illusion fell from a satin flowered bandeau adorned with seed pearls and rhinestones. The half mile were made of material live and trimmed with small covered buttons coming to a point at the fingertips. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid showered with white and silver veils and white satin streamers.

Miss Lurline White was maid of honor, her princess style ballerina length dress was of silver and blue metallic falde and low pointed neck line. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink feathered carnations and wore a bandeau of matching flowers in her hair.

Billy Fred Johnson of Fort Worth, Texas served his brother as best man. Miss Dana Lou Cunningham sang, "Because" and "A Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Wade Warren, Pianist.

Mrs. Tonnemaker, mother of the bride wore a beige suit with black accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations. Mrs. Johnson, mother of the groom chose a brown suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of white feathered carnations.

For her going away dress Mrs. Johnson wore a brown suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of white feathered carnations.

Johnson chose a brown tulle with a corsage of white blossoms accented by tiny Christmas balls. Mrs. Thomas Hays wore a dress of red and white with red carnations with silver ornaments. Others assisting the hostess were Mrs. Comer Boyett, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. E. S. Richards and Mrs. Richards Howard.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Jenkins and family Miss Mary Joe Davidson of Little Rock; Mrs. Vic Shell of Emmet; Mrs. Teddy Edwards, Benton; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Willis, Magnolia; Gilbert Honeycutt and Raymond Churchwell of Houston, Texas.

W.S.C.S. And Guild of First Methodist Church Have Tea Honoring Mrs. Claude Tillery

All circles of the W.S.C.S. and Wesleyan Guild of the First Methodist Church met in the Sanctuary Monday January 14, at 2 p. m.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Claude Tillery, and opened with the singing of, "A Charge to Keep." Now members and visitors were introduced, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Reports of the various committee chairmen were heard, and the group voted beginning in June there will be four 3 o'clock circles.

Mrs. H. E. Patterson was elected President to succeed Mrs. Tillery who is leaving soon to make her home in Dallas. Mrs. Cecil Weaver was elected vice-president. In the circle count, Circle one had the most members present. Circle chairman gave their reports.

Mrs. P. H. Webb gave an inspiring New Years devotion using as her scripture the 90th Psalm. Mrs. L. B. Tooley gave interesting high lights of her trip to the United Nations.

The meeting was closed with the benediction. Following the meeting a tea was given in honor of Mrs. Tillery. Mrs. Tooley read a humorous proclamation from Judge Lyle Brown ordering Mrs. Tillery to remain in Hope. Mrs. Patterson announced a Love offering had been given to Missions in honor of Mrs. Tillery. This money will be used to further the work of the W.S.C.S.

Miss Susan Davis sang a special solo accompanied by Mrs. B. C.

DOROTHY DIX

'Wild' Girl Is Tamed Wants to Prove It

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm 20, divorced and the mother of a 3-year-old son. Obviously I married young and, true to form, I made a very unwise choice. I've been divorced two years, and in that time have had more wild flings than most women have in a lifetime. Now I have met an exceptional man by that I mean he's the first man I really respect and feel I can trust. He has tamed me down to being a quite, respectable girl and, to tell the truth, I like it better than empty, senseless running around.

He loves me and wants to marry me. However, he's 1 year older than I and while that means nothing to me, he's conscious of the age gap. Furthermore, he's not completely sure that I am ready to settle down. Nothing would be more satisfying to me now than to be a wife, housekeeper, and have more children. This is honest! I have changed. I realize how foolish I've been, and I love Mark better than anything in the world.

Hyatt. In the receiving line were Mrs. Tillery wearing a pink Camellia corsage presented to her by the W.S.C.S. and Guild, Mrs. H. E. Patterson, Mrs. Virgil Keelev and members of the Executive Board.

The tea table was covered with a white hand made linen cloth, surrounding the crystal punch bowl which was placed at one end of the table was an arrangement of blue cedar interspersed with pink carnations. At the other end of the table were crystal holders containing pink lighted candles with an identical arrangement.

Green frosted punch, decorative cookies and nuts were served with circle chairmen alternating at the punch bowl. Inscribed on the white napkins was, "W.S.C.S. Cordelia" embossed in gold.

Mrs. B. C. Hyatt played soft organ music throughout the tea. Approximately 100 guests signed the guest book.

What can I say to convince him? Dear Dorothy Dix: You're not kidding yourself about the mistakes that must be made. You're rather long letter, but honest and sincere. If you can be convincing to Mark as you are to me, he'll come around. You're right, however, that the slightest slip on your part will bring back every one of those quindies. I'll take never, perhaps even years, and never-ceasing patience as my guide.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a widow with three children. I've been going with a very nice man for some time, but he says he will never marry again. He has been widowed twice and, do you know, I want to see death again. Should I stop seeing him and try to find someone else, or keep him as a friend?

Dear Laurette: Let's face it! A widow with three young children isn't rated No. 1 on the matrimonial market. You may have a long, long search for a man who will be a good father to your sons. Keep this man as a friend.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My boy friend is a good-looking chap, but has many ways that worry me. He's terribly jealous, selfish, and resents all of my family; in fact, he even resents my mother. He stopped school in the third grade and usually speaks without thinking. When we go out, it must be his choice; my wishes are never consulted. Should I marry him?

Dear Wanda: Good looks and a small measure of charm are certainly overbalanced by your beau's will fade, the charm will disappear off-beat qualities. The good looks when he puts the ring on your finger, and what have you got? An imperious, selfish, jealous bully!

Dear Dorothy Dix: My final divorce papers are due in four months. I have been going with a lovely girl for the past year, but she is unaware of my marital status. She is very opposed to divorce and I'm afraid when she learns about mine, she'll break up with me. How can I tell her so she'll understand?

Dear Donald: You've been traveling under false pretenses long enough. Put yourself off an honest basis as quickly as possible, regarding the consequences. Confronting the situation certainly won't land your case.

An estimated 7,400,000 Californians are covered by some form of health or hospital insurance, says the Health Insurance Council.

Basketball Game Successful

The game played at Harris gym
on Tuesday, January 15, was a huge success. The gym was filled almost to capacity with a crowd of highly enthusiastic fans. Although both games played, male and female, were won by the faculty, good, clean sportsmanship was exhibited by all players, and each did a terrific job. The fans thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and are asking for another game between the All-Stars and the faculty.
Watch this column for an announcement of another game.
Door receipts were $42.10, which will be used in the Athletic and Physical Education Departments.

The principal, W. V. Rutherford, and the faculty of Yeger High School wish to express their appreciation to all who helped to make this effort a success.

Football Rules Fine But Face Mask Grabbing Hit

NEW ORLEANS The Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association termed the game "pretty good as it is today," but cracked down on face mask grabbing as a growing danger.

The three-day sessions ended
yesterday with Committee Chairman H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, athletic director at the University of Michigan, calling the get-together
"unusually satisfying."

The committee, with final say on football legislation, imposed a 15-yard penalty for protective face mask grabbing and declined to expand the present substitution rule.

F. E. (Ted) Wieman, committee secretary and athletic director at the University of Denver, said the 25-man group felt the practice of "grabbing the masks"
could lead to "dangerous situations."

Strict enforcement will be left to the officials, Crisler said.

Expansion of the substitution rule, proposed by retired Columbia Coach Lou Little as a representative of the American Football Coaches Assn., met with strong opposition, Crisler said.

Under the plan offered by Little,
substitutes as well as starters would be permitted to return to the game once each quarter. Only starting players can return now.

Crisler said the committee felt the change could lead to a return of platoon system football. He said schools with large squads could train specialists in offense and defense and still another unit both ways.

"The feeling among committee members," he said, "is that we've got a pretty good game just as it is and there's no sense in changing it."

American to Open Baseball Play April 15

CHICAGO (U) The American League opens its 1957 baseball season with the traditional "presidential opener" at Washington April 15 and follows up with a record schedule of 237 night games.

The new season high in night contests was last season when 238 were scheduled and 226 played.

The Baltimore Orioles will open at Washington in which the President or some other national figure will "toss out the first ball, officially inaugurating the new campaign."

Other openers on April 16 find Chicago at Cleveland, Detroit at Kansas City, Washington at New York and Boston at Baltimore.

Boston, Detroit and Chicago
stage their home openers April 15.
New York will be at Boston,
Cleveland at Detroit and Kansas City at Chicago.

Heading the night game parade
are Baltimore and Kansas City.
Both have booked more than half of their 77 home games under the lights. The Orioles have 47 night games scheduled and Kansas City has 43, Washington has 38, Cleveland 31, Chicago 22, Detroit 21,
Boston 18 and New York 17.

Although the world champion
New York Yankees are expected to repeat with ease, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland and Boston appear solid contenders.

Three of the top five rated
teams finish the season at home.
They are Boston, Detroit and Chicago.

If there is a scheduled edge for any of the contenders, it would favor New York and Boston. The Yankees play 15 games at home in September and the Red Sox 17.
Detroit has 9, Chicago 8, and Cleveland 6.

Doubleheaders are scheduled on all three holidays — Decoration Day, The Fourth of July and Labor Day. In twin bills May 30
Cleveland plays Chicago, Kansas City at Detroit, New York at Washington and Baltimore at Boston.

July 4th doubleheaders have Chicago at Kansas City in a morning-afternoon affair, Detroit at Cleveland and Boston at New York.

Labor Day doubleheaders have Washington at Boston, New York at Baltimore, Kansas City at Cleveland and Chicago at Detroit.

Boxing Czar Suggested to Clean It Up

Southern California legislator, banging away at reported evils in California boxing, called today for "an all powerful extra" to oversee state control of the sport.

Assemblyman Frank G. Bonelli (D-Huntington Park) said he wants a director "separate and distinct" from the State Athletic Commission.

Bonelli is chairman of an Assembly subcommittee which proposed boxing and wrestling last year. He introduced a series of bills which he described as "dramatic boxing and wrestling legislation."

The other Bonelli measures would:
Slap a 5 per cent tax on fight promoters' television receipts.
Remove wrestling from commission control. Bonelli said wrestling was a "sham" and a "farce" and both the commission and the legislature "share a stigma for condoning it."

Authorize fines of up to $1,000
for ring figures breaking the rules.

Fullmer Plans Non-title Fight

DENVER (U) —Middleweight
champion Gene Fullmer, sticking to a keep-busy program, will fight Ernie Durando of Bayone, N. J., here Feb. 18.

Their 10-round non-title bout will be the first fight in the Colorado
capital since November, 1955.

Fullmer, a Mormon Elder, from West Jordan, Utah, who outslugged Sugar Ray Robinson for the crown Jan. 2, will tangle with Wolf Greaves of Pittsburgh in a Salt Lake City non-champion ship fight Jan. 22.

Kentucky Has Couple of Top College Teams

By BEN OLAN
Of The Associated Press

Kentucky, the state renowned for swift race horses, has come up with two crack college basketball teams in the Kentucky Wildcats and Louisville's Cardinals. The Cards are showing signs of becoming the top team in the territory.

Racing to a 45-23 lead in the first 14 minutes, Louisville easily registered its sixth straight victory last night, clobbering Eastern Kentucky 104-67. The triumph was the 10th against two setbacks
for the Cardinals, ranked fifth nationally.

Kentucky (11-3) is fifth in the latest Associated Press poll.

Only two other clubs among the first 20 saw action last night. Seattle (No. 7) defeated Portland State 76-64 and Oklahoma A&M (No. 19)
beat Oklahoma 57-43.

In other games, Maryland
whipped Georgetown 92-69, Clemson nipped Furman 80-77 in overtime, Syracuse trounced Penn State 75-45 and Villanova dumped Penn 63-47.

Louisville had an easy time, Bill
Darragh led the scoring with 28 points.

The Oklahoma Aggies-Sonner
game was a rough one. Joe King of Oklahoma and Joe Crutchfield
of A&M were ejected for "scuffling under the basket. After a relatively slow start, A&M forged to a 48-30 lead in the second half.

Maryland led Georgetown by 30 points at one point in another tough game. Fifty personal fouls were called and Nick Davis of Maryland and Ken Pichette of Georgetown were put off the floor for fighting.

Bill Yarborough climaxed a brilliant Clemson career by scoring 32 points, including all four Clemson made in the overtime. "The six-foot senior, who has used up his eligibility under Atlantic Coast Conference rules, broke 19 school scoring records in finishing with 1,553 points for 35 games.

Title Stripped From Saddler by the NBA

MILWAUKEE (U) —Spindly legged Sandy Saddler, no longer the boss of the featherweights in the eyes of the National Boxing Association may be reinstated if he proves "physically unfit" at an examination next week.

The NBA stripped Saddler of his crown yesterday for failing to sign for a title defense but said it would "reconsider" if the examination shows "he is unable to fight."

Saddler was injured in an auto accident last July and hasn't fought since. He last defended the 128-pound title Jan. 18, 1956, when he stopped Flash Elorde of the Philippines in the 13th round.

This is the third time, in and out of the ring, that Saddler has lost the championship. He first lost it to Willie Pep on a 15-round decision Feb. 11, 1949, after he had won it from the Hartford, Conn., fancy dan four months earlier.

Then, on Dec. 14, 1954, the NBA dethroned Saddler for failing to defend his crown within a six-month period. The New York State Athletic Commission declined to take similar action.

The New York commission also leans toward Saddler in the latest hassle.

"We're not going to take any man's championship away if he's got a legitimate reason for not fighting," said Chairman J. J. J.
Heldman in New York. "His condition will be determined shortly and the New York commission will act accordingly."

The commission now may only suspend or revoke licenses.
Bonelli's czar idea already has met opposition from Gov. Goodwin Knight, who expressed disapproval when such a plan was advanced last year in a critical report on the sport in this state.

A special investigation committee said it found 72 violations in a year long study ordered by Knight. These included fight fixing, cheating of boxers under world infiltration and illegal manager-promoter combinations.

Results in Emmet Junior Tournament

Opening rounds in the Emmet
Junior Invitational Basketball tournament were played last night
with one girls game and three boys games.

Emmet and Cale junior girls opened the tournament at 6 p. m.
with an exciting game that saw an extra overtime and a sudden death playoff. The Emmet girls were victorious 33 to 31.

In the boys games, Fouke defeated Bradley 28 to 18, Laneburg whipped McNeil 42 to 20 and Em-met junior boys pulled one out of the fire with a 28 to 22 win over Cale.

Six games are being played today, the first one starting at 1 p.
m. for three games this afternoon,
and four games tonight with the first one starting at 6 p. m. There will be four games Friday night and the finals Saturday night at 7 and 8 p. m.

plaster comes from sulphur.

Spring Hill Drops Three to Taylor

Taylor cage teams won a tripleheader Tuesday night from Spring Hill in the Taylor gym. Taylor junior girls won 28 to 13 with Carolyn Britt and Jerry Smith each getting 12 points. Brenda Smith was high for Spring Hill with 9.

Taylor senior girls romped to a 53 to 10 victory after leading 27-0 at the half. Betty Fields was high for Taylor with 14 and Gail Cato made 7 for Spring Hill.

The senior boys game was a thriller with Taylor winning out 75 to 67. Travis Cannon was high for Taylor with 34 points and Brint Odum of Spring Hill hit 26 points followed by teammate Jimmy Martin with 18.

Officials were Wayne Huddles-ton and Thomas Staggs. Timekeeper was Voyne Souler and scorekeeper was Kenneth Bobo. Reported by Wendell Rogers of Spring Hill.

Criticism of Budget by Both Parties

WASHINGTON (AP) Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today that if the new budget proposed by President Eisenhower is balanced, "it will be accomplished with increased inflation."

Some Republicans joined Democrats in criticism aimed partly at the size of the $71,500,000,000 spending budget Eisenhower proposed for the year ending June 30, 1958.

Sen. Schoeppel (R-Kan.) said he believes the message contains "material that may cause considerable controversy," and Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) said he expects Congress to "whittle down many of the items."

But Rep. Wigglesworth (R-Mass.) said the outlook for a $1,400,000 surplus and the third balanced budget in as many years "is an outstanding administration accomplishment."

Wigglesworth, second ranking Republican on the House Appropriations Committee, said he considered the three-year record especially significant since it follows tax cuts totaling $7,400,000,000 a year voted in 1954.

Byrd, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, expressed doubts that the forecasts would be realized, saying:

"The small estimated surplus and debt reduction hang on two shaky reeds—first, increase in postal rates; and second, continuing increases in revenue from inflated corporate and individual income taxes."

"These estimates for next year are 5 per cent over the current year and 11 per cent over last year."

Included in the administration's budget revenue estimates is increased postal income it hopes to get from postal rate boosts, including a raise to 5 cents an ounce for letter mail.

The budget also is based on continuation of taxes at their present rates. This led Schoeppel to comment:

"I can't see how we can do anything but keep the tax rate in force if Congress is expected to meet the requests the President has outlined. That does not mean I'm happy about it."

Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said he thought "the administration is skating on a very thin ice" in predicting a balanced budget. He suggested two ways to achieve "real economy" would be "to curtail the foolish foreign spending and get the military boys in line."

Several legislators indicated they expect Eisenhower's request for a new natural gas bill to stir opposition. Eisenhower suggested a measure which would remove natural gas producers from federal regulation.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) criticized the President's tax recommendations, saying the administration "that a great facility for forgetting campaign promises—I'm sure he promised tax relief to small business."

In the House, two Democrats were critical of the President's proposed housing program.

Rep. Rain (D-Ala.), chairman of the House Housing Subcommittee, called budget proposals on this subject "pitifully inadequate" and "a keen disappointment."

Committee said the recommendation for increasing the GI home mortgage loan rate from 4½ to 5 per cent was "the last step to be taken," and is "not the answer" to the shortage of funds for such loans.

COLLECTING THE REWARD — Rock-and-roll idol Elvis Presley is rewarded with a kiss from Jeanne Wilson, five-year-old polio victim of Rockaway Beach, N.Y. The singer has just launched, in New York City, the "Teens Against Polio" campaign by buying a huge lollipop from Jeanne. Hundreds of thousands of young people throughout the nation will aid the fight on polio through the sale of candy, peanuts and balloons during January.

Dinah's Show Full Hour of Entertainment

By CHARLES MERDER

NEW YORK (AP) —Dinah Shore has given us another bright tune, full Chevy Show (NBC-TV). Aided and abetted by Perry Como, Art Carney, Count Basie and his orchestra and Stubby Kaye, she created a delightful hour of Sunday evening television entertainment.

Why was it good? Why do her hour shows have more sparkle than many other hour variety shows?

Dinah has certain advantages. She not only sings and dances. She is beautiful and vivacious. These attributes have helped her attract "some" superb talent to her programs.

"We never do a script until we have a cast," she said. "When we have the cast we write the script around them."

Well, there's one reason why it's a good show.

"And to me," she said, "a good guest is someone I can lean on. I don't mean physically. I mean someone who is self-assured. That's what's been so wonderful about such guests as Perry Como and Art Carney and George Gobel and Frank Sinatra."

There's another reason.

"And," she said, "I never want to seem to boss the show. I never want to be anything but completely feminine."

And there you probably have the basic secret. She is one woman television performer who never is anything but completely feminine.

Arkansas Draft Quota Set at 144

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Arkansas' draft quota for February is 144 men, state Selective Service headquarters announced here today.

The national call for the month is 14,000 men, all to be inducted in the Army.

A year ago Arkansas' February quota was 76. The January 1957 quota is 103.

The increase principally is for construction and for management and protection of the parks as the influx of visitors continues to mount.

Last year marked the start of "Mission 66," a 1-year program designed to equip and staff the parks to take care of an estimated 80 million visitors in 1966. It is now believed the figure may reach 100 million.

$99,700 for Development of Hot Springs

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Eisenhower today asked Congress to appropriate $99,700 for general development of Hot Springs, Ark., National Park for the year beginning July 1.

The item was contained in the President's budget message to Congress in which he recommended more than last year's appropriation—for the National Park Service.

"The increase principally is for construction and for management and protection of the parks as the influx of visitors continues to mount."

Last year marked the start of "Mission 66," a 1-year program designed to equip and staff the parks to take care of an estimated 80 million visitors in 1966. It is now believed the figure may reach 100 million.

Radford Feels Middle East Plan Is Good

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) —Adm. Arthur W. Radford says Congress passage of the Eisenhower Middle East resolution would "practically eliminate the chances of war" in that area.

The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff testified Jan. 8 at a closed session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. His testimony, made public today after censoring for security, made these other points:

1. The United States has a "definite" military superiority over Russia, probably even somewhat greater than that of a year ago.

2. The United States now has the capability of moving men and material effectively and quickly into the Middle East in case it was to help put out a "brushfire" war.

3. He doubts small wars would break out at the same time in different parts of the world. The Eisenhower resolution does not anticipate that America would have to fight a limited war in the Middle East, but it would make such a war less likely.

Fire Damages Newspaper

TARENTUM, Pa. (AP) —An early morning fire which lasted for four hours did an estimated $300,000 damage to the plant of the Tarentum Valley Daily News today.

The roof of the two-story brick building was burned out and the composing room and linotypes severely damaged by flames and water. Tons of newsprint were reported destroyed by water. However, an employee of the afternoon paper said the presses were saved.

Firemen of nine companies from Tarentum and surrounding communities fought the blaze in 3-below-zero weather.

The cause of the fire has not been officially determined but it was reported the flames broke out in the stereotype department—where molten metal is used to make plates for the presses.

Leon Schwartz, managing editor made the damage estimate. He said the news had received offers from six western Pennsylvania plants to use their facilities temporarily.

PSC Denies Restraining Order by Alcoa

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Aluminum Co. of America has lost one round in its gas supply squabble with Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and Reynolds Metals Co., its chief competitor.

The state Public Service Commission yesterday denied a temporary restraining order asked by Alcoa. The injunction would have required Ark-La to furnish Alcoa the same service received by Reynolds.

This would have given Alcoa preferential treatment, the PSC order said.

Chairman Lewis Robinson said a hearing still is pending on Alcoa's original petition filed last year.

That petition charged that Ark-La discriminated in favor of Reynolds.

Alcoa buys gas on a monthly basis from Ark-La. Reynolds has a contract under which it pays a higher price for "less interruptible" service.

Bearden to Handle Faubus' Tax Issues

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Gov. Orval Faubus today confirmed reports that state Sen. Lee Bearden of Leachville will handle his measures in the Senate.

At a morning news conference, the governor said his bill for tax increases may be introduced in the Senate first instead of simultaneously in both houses.

Gov. Faubus declined to say who would handle his legislation in the House.

Asked about his strategy of coming out with a legislative program so early in the session, Gov. Faubus said he made his move early because "if it is turned down the Legislature must have time to re-write all of the budget which include provisions for new revenues."

Gov. Faubus asked for tax increases totaling an estimated 22 million dollars. He wants to increase the state sales tax, income tax and severance tax.

Bids Taken on Highway Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Apparent low bids totaling $1,901,603.13 on 10 road and bridge construction jobs were opened today by the Arkansas Highway Commission.

Alternate bids were submitted on one of the jobs—a resurfacing job on state Highway 8 in Ashley and Chicot counties—because of possible different construction methods. Highway officials said the method attracting the lower bid would be accepted.

Records Set in Highway Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —The Arkansas Highway Commission says records were set in state highway construction during the 1954-55 biennium.

A biennial report issued yesterday said about $17,300,000 in construction construction was let for 137½ miles during the 2-year period.

Satin Stripe Flowering Bateau

The happiest news in print—a light, lyrical sort of dress. Toni Todd uses vine-covered stripes to your advantage in a becomingly smooth bodice atop an airborne skirt of pleats, adds a silk berchief. Wamsutta's woven satin stripe 'International Flower' print, washable and crease-resistant. Blue, pink, lilac or gold on white. Sizes 10 to 18.

Attractive Opposites—the Sheath and the Shirdress

Because variety breeds wardrobe versatility, Toni Todd presents two very pretty sides of fashion '57. The bolero's sheath, sleek and chic, crisped with white—the bolero, beautifully bordered with lace. In Burlington's linen-look rayon. Navy, cornflower blue, brown, coral, avocado or charcoal. Sizes 12 to 20 and 12½ to 22½. The petal embroidered shirdress, feminine and festive with a blossoming skirt. In Cohama's 'Rena' lustre-textured weave of cotton and acetate. Apricot, blue, navy, most cherry or silver. Sizes 10 to 18.
